Come to Virginia Tech to write about soccer, football, baseball, school, the beach, music, art, parents, grandparents, sisters, brothers, girlfriends, boyfriends, bicycles, cars, ice cream, winter, spring, summer, fall, the earth, the moon, stars—Do you have strong feelings about one or more of these? If so, join us for All Write @ Virginia Tech, a week-long creative writing camp, and learn many ways to record and preserve your feelings in poetry, fiction, and non-fiction! All workshops are taught by Virginia Tech faculty.

Summer Creative Writing Youth Camp

June 20–24, 2005
Virginia Tech Campus

Offered by the English Department and Continuing and Professional Education at Virginia Tech

www.conted.vt.edu/awvt/

Virginia Tech does not discriminate against employees, students, or applicants for admission or employment on the basis of race, gender, disability, age, veteran status, national origin, religion, sexual orientation, or political affiliation. Anyone having questions concerning discrimination should contact the Office for Equal Opportunity. If you are a person with a disability and require any auxiliary aids, services, or other accommodations for this program, please discuss your accommodation needs with Jane Todd at 540/231-2014 or TDD 1-800-828-1120 by two weeks prior to the conference.
These creative workshops offer aspiring writers and poets a fun and exciting learning adventure in writing! Students will make new friends while improving their creativity and writing abilities.

Workshops are for students ages 8 to 18. Students will be placed in workshops based on their ages and selected interest areas.

Select your primary interest area and see your talent soar! Write about your experiences and examine the elements, techniques and craft of:

- poetry: sound, rhythm, word choice, and form
- fiction: character, setting, voice, dialogue, and conflict
- non-fiction: personal essays, memory sketches, memoirs, and journaling
